

Job Title: Quality/Compliance Monitoring Auditor
Reports to: Quality/Compliance Monitoring Manager
Department: Quality Department, based in Head office, Swords, Co Dublin.
Work Hours: 0900-1730

The ideal candidate will;

- be able to demonstrate an ability to work under their own initiative
- be self-motivated and have good interpersonal skills
- have the ability to work as part of a team in a busy office environment and have the capacity to meet strict deadlines when required
- have a solid working knowledge of Microsoft Office products such as Word and Outlook
- have a background in auditing Airline Operations as an advantage
- shall maintain competence on the basis of continued education and training in their area of responsibility. The company will facilitate this process
- must be eligible to live and work in the EU

Key Responsibilities and Accountabilities,

- Carry out quality audits of ASLI Flight Operations, ASLI Maintenance and Engineering, Training, Ground Operations activities and contracted service providers.
- Monitoring activity in the fields of flight operations, ASLI maintenance and engineering departments training, crew training and ground operations, that the regulatory requirements and standards required by EASA, the IAA and any additional requirements defined by the operator for maintaining continued compliance with the AOC.

Closing date for all written applications is 29th March 2019
If you would like to apply please forward your application to onicheallaigh@aslairlines.com